Re: Mr Kelvin Deal

It is my privilege to be able to write in support of Kelvin Deal and indeed to introduce him to you.

Kelvin and his wife Kathleen, have worked with me in the formation and development of Liberty Trust, Whakatane from it's inception until this present time. This Trust has now loaned in excess of $1,000,000 (one million dollars) interest-free to New Zealanders, and remains completely focused on breaking the debt cycle that so many Christians find themselves in.

To achieve this wonderful goal takes more than the lending function of Liberty Trust. People are in great need of teaching that can give them a Biblical view of Finance that they can begin to apply to their lives. Kelvin is now feeling God's leading to address this. I concur with his direction.

Kelvin is an Accountant with many years of experience. In my opinion he is conservative in his financial perspective. He is however committed to Faith in Finance and so is a valuable resource person to the Body of Christ in this vital area.

I commend him to you!

In glad service for Jesus
